

Call Back

Film intervention. Collaborative project.

Nebraska, 2016

In the fall of 2006 Nick Deamer auditioned as a background actor for the Coen Brothers' film "No Country for Old Men". In spite of being a true dream to partake in one of their movies, Mr. Deamer mistakenly stayed up all night. He made the audition but was not called back. 10 years later this video intends to put things back in order.
