Virtual Event on Zoom

This Spring Open Studios, thirty-one artists and curators from around the world present their art and projects in a series of short talks, screenings, performances, studio tours, and interviews. You are invited to engage with the work of these visionary arts professionals from across the globe in residence at ISCP.

The event takes place in a Zoom webinar. Q&A sessions are built into each presentation.

Guest speaker Aruna D'Souza, award-winning modern and contemporary art writer, will make opening remarks each day.

Attendees are highly encouraged to use the chat feature to ask questions and share words of appreciation with the residents. This event will be recorded.

ISCP

ISCP supports the creative development of artists and curators, and promotes exchange through residencies and public programs. Housed in a former factory in Brooklyn, with thirty-five light-filled work studios and two galleries, ISCP organizes exhibitions, events and offsite projects, which are free and open to all, sustaining a vibrant community of contemporary art practitioners and diverse audiences. Over 1,500 artists and curators from more than eighty-five countries, including the United States have undertaken residencies at ISCP.
