

CELEBRATE THE STUDIO FAQ

Where will Celebrate the Studio be held?

Celebrate the Studio will be held virtually through Zoom on your computer or phone. You will receive an email 1 hour before the event with a link to join the event. When you click the link, you will be prompted to download Zoom, and to enter the email associated with your Zoom account to join the event. Learn more here about Zoom.

How much does it cost to attend?

Celebrate the Studio tickets are offered in four price levels starting at $25 here. The event marks the final hours of ISCP's 2021 Benefit Auction, and we encourage all to either place a bid (artsy.net/iscp-auction) or make a donation here to support ISCP's programs.

When is the deadline for the VIP ticket?

The sale of the VIP Virtual Event ticket ends Monday, October 4, 2021 6pm EDT. An ISCP staff member will contact you to collect contact information for the shipping of a custom cocktail kit.

How do I bid in the 2021 Benefit Auction?

Celebrate the Studio celebrates the conclusion of ISCP's 2021 Benefit Auction, which ends at 5pm EDT on October 21st. To place a bid, you will first need to register with Artsy here. Then visit our auction page here (artsy.net/iscp-auction) to place your bid.

What do I do if I have questions about an artwork?

Please reach out to Houda Lazrak, Development Manager and Head of Communications at hlazrak@iscp-nyc.org, with any questions you have about the works in the auction. You can also reach out to an Artsy representative at specialist@artsy.net.

Will other guests be able to see and hear me?

We will be able to see you, but not hear you - all guests will be muted so that we can all hear our speakers. If you would prefer not to be on camera, you are welcome to turn it off. You can also call in to the event on your phone, but you will not be able to see any of the speakers or other guests.

Do I need a computer to attend?

We recommend that guests join the event from a computer or through the Zoom app on your phone so that you can best see and hear our speakers. You can also call in to the event on your phone, but you will not be able to see any of the speakers or other guests.

Will the event be recorded?

Yes.

Who do I contact if I have trouble joining the event or have other technical difficulties the day of the event?

Please refer to Zoom's FAQ page here. If you are still having trouble, please email info@iscp-nyc.org. We will be monitoring emails as best as we are able during the program, but please be patient with our responses.
